THE MAN ABOUT TOWN
By Harry Tucker.

When Dave Kline comes this way again he hopes to be the proud owner of a "Tom" show.

By a "Tom" show, it is understood to be a modernized and revised edition of "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

In making up his company in New York the other day, Dave interviewed a leading actress, and suggested that she take the part of Little Eva in the show.

"Does Little Eva have to black up?" asked the leading actress, and Dave almost fainted.

"Just to think," said Dave, "a performer who has played in almost everything from burlesque to Hamlet, didn't know Little Eva."

It's so nice to move.

We love to put up stoves and hang pictures and put down carpets.

We love to let our new neighbors see what we have in the way of household furniture and fixings.

We love to drop the water pitcher down the steps and spill the molasses all over our feather bed.

We have moved and now we are a constituent of Delegate von Rosenheim and Sheriff Solomon, and one regret is that we cannot see the Superintendent Cohen to remove things from our back alley.

We may run for something ourselves at the next election, even if it's nothing but a street car.

We have been informed that we have been chosen a member of the Woggle Club, of which Harry Whitte is president.

It gives us great pleasure to accept the nomination, and we know that with the bunch of good fellows that the president has around him, there is bound to be something doing.

Mr. Emmett Levy, ahead of the "Man About Town" cigars, is here and hustling.

We hope he will do well on this trip, for winter is coming and our overcoat is a very thin one.

Howard Hall is now here. He is quartered at Campbell's, and we hope to get even with him before he leaves for Atlanta.

The last time we saw him he was running like the mischief down the street in New York in the rain without an umbrella, with only a change in the rear.

Miss Hall used to write pieces for the papers, and then he switched off on books and poetry—we have read some of his poetry and some of his books, and we have seen some of his plays.

And they are all good, just like Hall.

CHARGE DISCRIMINATION.

Complaint Filed Against Steamboat Lines and Railways.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 14.—Charges of unreasonable and discriminatory rates on freight are made in a complaint filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission by James L. Quimby, W. J. Platt and Company and a large number of other merchants in Aiken, Graniteville, Langley and Blackville, S. C., against the Clyde and Old Dominion Steamship Lines, the Merchants' and Minors' Transportation Company, the Baltimore Steam Packet Company, the Southern Seaboard Air Line and Atlantic Coast Line and Charleston and Western Carolina Lines.

The complaint alleges that the rates between the points named are made in a discriminatory manner, and that the rates are unreasonable as compared with the rates to Augusta, Ga.; that prior to June 2, 1904, the Southern Railway Company, except Blackville, were allowed the same rates from the Northeastern cities as Augusta, and in violation of the long and short haul clause.

The complaint asks for a refund of thousands of dollars lost alleged to have been sustained.

Speakership Candidates at Work.

The contest for Speaker of the next House of Delegates of Virginia has already begun. Hon. Samuel I. Kelley, of this city, and Hon. William D. Caldwell, of Hanover, are the candidates for the position so far announced.

Of course the candidacy of both gentlemen is contingent upon their re-election in November, 1905. Both are well known, and there is reason to believe that each will be returned as members. Both gentlemen are quietly soliciting support for the speakership.
